

The Senior Issue

THE TALON

Hood River Valley High School

June 2015

Each year, the final edition of The Talon pays tribute to the graduating class. Seniors get a chance to thank people, express their regrets, “will” items to younger classmates, and predict where they’ll be in the future. (These are their words, errors and all.) After the seniors get their say, the HRV staff gets a chance to say goodbye to each graduating senior. Farewell, class of 2015!

The seniors say thank-you

Scarlett Adams: I would like to thank Mr. Kennedy for teaching the most interesting class I’ve ever taken at HRV, 20th Century History Through the Media. Thank you to all of the coaches I’ve had through the years who put up with my horrible jokes on the bench and in the dugout. Thank you to all of the teachers at this school who put so much time and energy into making class interesting and fun, and doing everything possible to make sure we’re successful. Thank you to Tammy Hosaka for helping me on my rocky path to graduation. And finally, a genuine thank you to Mr. Case, who taught me a great deal of history, but so much more about life.

James Estes: I would like to thank all my wrestling coaches for forming me to be the man I am today. I would like to thank my scout masters for pushing me to earn my rank of Eagle Scout.

Kelsey Wells: I want to thank Tom Ames for always helping me on and off the court. You’ve always pushed me to be my best and thank you for always looking out for me even when I was a pain in your butt.

Beth Mixon: I want to thank all my teachers for letting me make up work that I missed for skiing. You guys are great. Thanks for not failing me, it’s appreciated.

Roger Osborne: I want to thank my parents, friends, and family for being here for me. However, I want to thank the Ames’s for putting up with me over the last four years.

Megumi Hosaka: First and foremost I would like to thank my mother, Tammy Hosaka. She always pulled through with the mints, transcripts, and a safe hideaway for when I needed to cry it out. I also want to thank the Butchinator for always telling me to shut up. It’s good for my ego. And thank you to Rafelson, Judah, and Noteboom for teaching me not to be a wimpy writer.

Eva Kahn: I’d like to thank Ms. Ramsey for speaking her mind and encouraging her students to do the same. We need more teachers like you!

Breanna Weekly: I would like to thank Keller for pretty much everything. Thank you for letting us take over your room during lunch. Thank you for your support throughout my 4 years of high school. Thank you for being a rad coach! Again, thank you for everything!

Annelise Acosta: Ramsey, thank you for teaching me to love learning and how to use commas (not that I remember how).

Rory Krehbiel: I would like to thank Krum for her kindness and help. I would like to thank Stieghner for those few good days that made all the bad ones worth it. Also, all the fantastic times in band! I truly loved that class.

Rhiannah Salman: A gigantic thank you to Krum. There are a million things I could say to you, but you already know them all. I will say this, I got a glimpse of the light and it’s bigger, brighter, and more beautiful than I ever imagined. Another thank you to Mr. Kellert for putting up with me for two years in a row. I know I can be a handful when I don’t understand math (which is always), so thank you for being patient and positive.

Amy White: I would like to thank Ms. Ramsey for being the best teacher ever. I would also like to thank Lindsey Weseman for being a great coach.

Jennifer Garcia: I thank Ms. Bentley for being so helpful and kind. I also thank Mrs. Webster for being the best english/writing teacher!

Shamas Ealy: I would like to thank my best friends, Liam Arthur, Evan Jones, and Michael Lane. These guys have stood by my side through everything and I can tell everything to them. My band members, Branden Blais, and Eli and Quincy Zuck. These guys are fantastic songwriters and musicians. Zach Davis, Andrew Clark, and Alison Pierce, because they are just cool in every way. And I can’t forget Mr. Walker, who is one of those rare teachers that you just really enjoy as a person, Mr. Fults, who is seriously awesome, Mr. Kennedy, who I can share my love of music with, and Mrs. Webster, who’s helped me with my writing, and story interpretation. And to everyone else who has been in my life, I can’t fit all of you here, but you know who you are. Seriously, thank you.

The seniors say thank-you, continued

Anneke Virk: I'd like to thank Mr. Case for building a bathroom for me hahahaha. I'd also like to thank Mr. Sadil for making me read the most boring books on the planet.

Avery Holyoak: Big ole thanks to the administration, namely Rich Radigan Polkinghorn, Kyle Rosselle, and Nate Parsons, and of course, Dan Goldman. I respect the trill vibes y'all managed to keep even when layin down the law.

Adrianna Laws: would like to thank my amazing counselor Ms. Bentley! Mr. Reynolds, Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Webster, and Ann Zuehlke for working with me on my special circumstances!

Cayla Sacre: Huge thank you to Krum and Ms. Ramsey. Krum, thank you for all of the chances you gave me and for the confidence you helped me find. Mrs. Ramsey, thank you for opening my mind and teaching me to be able to see all the sides. You have both been inspirations to me and have inspired me to be the best I can be.

Laura Delgado: I want to thank Ben Gardea for being a great friend and co worker, thanks to you, closing isn't as bad. I guess you're cool too. I appreciate those teachers who actually care for their students and their grades, and helped your girl out even though I probably missed most of your classes due that terrible condition I get like two a week, called laziness.

Conner Curtis: Rafe even if you aren't here anymore, Mrs. Moline for getting me through Algebra 2, and Mr. Albertson for being my favorite teacher. I wish you stayed.

Chloe Godwin: I would like to thank Mr. Schmidt and Mr. and Mrs. Bozarth for being the best FFA advisors I could ever ask for. They have taught me so much about agriculture and about life. I'd like to thank Ms. Bentley for being one of the coolest councilors. Thank you for dealing with my early senioritis Freshman year! I'd also like to thank Mr. Fuels for never failing to make fun of me for not drinking black coffee.

Lucero Munoz: I would like to thank the Child Care Team for providing me with an opportunity to keep on studying while my baby was taken care of. I would like to thank Mr. Fults for caring about my grades and giving a motivation to keep on the good work.

Jenni Packer: I would like to thank Donald Gary Schmidt, Nita Bozarth, and Bryan Bozarth for being amazing FFA advisors and ALWAYS pushing me to be the best that I can. Thank you to Ma and Pa for dealing with me through my teenage years.

Kayla McCafferty: I would like to thank my family for encouraging me through everything. I thank my grandparents for going to every game, and being the best supporters, and lastly, I thank all my friends for keeping school interesting and fun.

Laura Chavez: I would like to thank my parents for all their hard work, for always pushing me to do the best. I would also like to thank all my teachers for teaching me many things.

Daisy Chamonica: I would like to thank my mother for being there for me and supporting me with everything.

Maria Huerta: I'd like to thank my mother because without her I wouldn't be where I am now. Every day she would encourage me to study hard and never give up until I was finished. The excitement of her using her garden roses for my graduation flowers would make me try even harder than I was. So that on the day of my graduation I could just see that big proud smile on her face.

Salvador Diaz: I would like to thank Mr. Manzo for letting us play soccer during lunch and being our referee.

Christian Marquez: Thanks you all for all the sponsorships over the years to help fund my Wrestling career, and also thanks to the Dehart family for the food over the years.

John Gray: I would like to thank Mrs. Moline, best math teacher I have ever had.

Cleo Koerner: I would like to thank Ms. Bentley for being a super helpful counselor for helping me with my schedule and answering all the questions I ever had. Thank you Profe Hay and Profe Mudry for being enthusiastic during Spanish class and making it fun for me. Ms. Ramsey, thank you very much for being a great English teacher and talking about useful tools to prepare for college. Mrs. Yasui, thank you for making Much Ado about Nothing entertaining and awesome in Sophomore English and also helping me pass my two writing samples in your Junior Write On! class. Ms. Davis, you have made a huge impact in RGB for me because all the units you taught in class made me gain a lot of knowledge which makes me curious to learn more about these topics. You are an incredible science teacher at this school. Mr. Kennedy, Thank you for having me in your economics class which you made it enjoyable and entertaining which I won't forget. Ms. Roeske, It was a pleasure being in your geometry class for a 2nd time to improve my grade and understanding of the concepts you taught. Thank you! Mr. Steighner, Thank you for having me in concert choir and chamber singers! It was incredible to sing songs from different time periods in history! I also gained more knowledge from your class about music and what the real world is about. I wish you all the best for a fabulous retirement!

Maria Padilla: I would like to thank all my teachers for motivating me to do better! Much love!

Jocelyn Estrada: I would like to thank Mrs. Borton for helping me with my struggles in math.

Erica Sylva: Thank you! Thank you to everybody that was able to help me throughout my high school career and who have always motivated me to try my best especially my teachers!

Marco Bibian: I would like to thank Mrs. Moline, Mrs. Weseman, and Mr. Gerlick for putting up with me.

Alison Pierce: I would like to thank all my teachers from freshman to senior year who helped me get through school with all the help I needed. High School would be so much harder for me without all of your positive encouragement, and help. Thank you.

Branden Blaise: I would like to thank Ms. Charity, because she is awesome and helped me a lot.

Alexa Lindley: I want to thank my mom and dad for believing in me and pushing me to get good grades, even if I was stubborn most of the time. I also want to thank Steve Mellor for helping me with math!

Riley Van Hoose: I would like to thank all the people that have got me this far in my life and prepared me for my future college experience at the U.

Nancy Funez: First of all, I would like to thank the school janitors, because we see them all the time and never truly appreciate all the hard work they do for the school, so thank you! Merci to Madame Stevens for being my amazing French teacher for three years. Thanks to Mr. Noteboom and the rest of the boys basketball coaches for letting me be a manager these last two years. Thank you to Mrs. Roberts for helping me out with local scholarships. A big thanks to Mr. Sadil for being harsh on me in HJE, and always making me paranoid on everything I write, but also for teaching me a lot about everything. Thank you to Mr. Yasui for making me really good at painting posters. Thanks to Mr. Keller for being soccer coach my freshman year. Thank you to Mrs.

Bentley for being an awesome counselor! I would also like to thank Mr. Fults for always calling me funnies. A huge thanks to my cheer coaches Mrs. Schlosser, Janet, and Lisa for making high school cheer a blast. Last, but not least, I'd like to thank Mrs. Noteboom for being my motherly figure in school and out of school. You've done so much for me, & there will never be another teacher like you. I'm going to miss all of you a bunch. :)

Ibette Sanchez: I want to thank all my teachers for providing me with a crazy amount of knowledge and academic skills. I'd like to thank Mr. Yasui for tolerating me and for being a different kind of teacher, and person. A big thank you to all the clubs, groups, organizations and student panels I have participated in that have allowed me to give back to our school. I also want to thank Juan Camarillo for keeping me sane and level-headed through such a rough, stressful year, I'm going to miss you way too much. I want to thank Jorge Calderon for remaining that friend I could always turn to who wouldn't judge me when I had a weird/thoughtless question.

Lulu Rodriguez: I would like to thank Mrs. Noteboom for reviewing and giving me feedback on all my scholarship and college applications, Lisa Roberts for guiding me through the college process, and all the other staff members that have helped me along the way.

Caitlyn Fick: Every teacher, administrator, janitor, person in this school because without them, this school wouldn't even function and some of the best times I've had in the past four years wouldn't have happened.

Janelle Pedroza: I would like to thank Noteboom and Sadie for being realistic and not sweet talking us through the last two years of high school. I would also like to thank Kellert for being a great teacher that he is and looking only for the best outcomes for his students. You have truly inspired me to do my best in math and any other subject.

Collete Zack: I would like to thank Mrs. Mudry for pretending that what I was saying in spanish was somewhat right, and for sparking my interest in Spanish speaking cultures. You gave me the confidence travel and learn the language as I go, even if I was constantly a little bit off.

Emmalyse Brownlee: I would like to thank Krum for introducing me to theatre and helping me through my injury.

Veronica Mendiola: I would like to thank Rosa Cortez, my recruiter, because she's awesome and is always there to help. I would also like to thank Mrs. Noteboom because I honestly didn't think I would make it in her class and she pushes her students to do the best. And thank you to ALL my teachers throughout these past 13 years who've helped me get here.

Samuel Ortis: I really want to thank Mrs. Webster for the tremendous help she has given me. I also want to thank Solé Costa for putting up with my sassiness and laziness. Beyoncé has also influenced me.

Melissa Evangelista: I would like to thank all the teachers that I've had throughout my four years in high school. They've all contributed in some way to me becoming a better person and not giving up on school. I also thank my ASPIRE mentor Jonnie for motivating me to get things done.

Even more senior thank-yous

Cassie Schweitz: I would like to thank all my FFA advisers for putting up with my know-it-all attitude, and for guiding me through life, when things got tough. I would like to also thank you guys for never giving up on me, no matter how hard headed I was.

Katie Middel: I'd like to thank Mr. Case for being a great teacher, Mr. Clarkson for dealing with me during cat-dissection, Mrs. Noteboom for helping me get into college, and Mrs. Tonn for attempting to teach me trig. Hannah Barry: I would like to thank Mrs. Schlosser for helping me become who I am today and being my number 1 coach and never leaving my side. I also want to thank Mrs. Tonn for not getting annoyed at me for always failing my tests and having to come retest.

Alyssa Shoaf: I would like to thank Nan Noteboom for helping me out so much throughout all my years in high school. Even though I know we've had some rough times, you've helped me with so much and I appreciate it a ton. Gisela Ayala: I would like to thank Mrs. Webster, Mrs. Davis, Lisa Roberts, Amy Graham, and Mrs. Ramsey. Without their help, my dream of going to college would have been impossible. Thank you Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. Goode for teaching me the amazing French culture and language. Thank you Mr. Solé Costa for helping me improve in Spanish.

Yonny Garcia: I'd like to thank Pauls for holding it down.

Yesenia Mendoza: I would like to thank Mrs. Noteboom for helping me improve my writing style, without your class I would be beyond unprepared for college. Mrs. Uhler for sparking my interest in Health and Nursing, and Mrs. Schlosser for being my coach and a role model.

Madison Freeman: I'd like to thank Ms. Bentley for getting me the treatment I needed, as well as being a positive influence in my life.

Alejandra Sanchez: I would like to thank Mrs. Webster for being one of the best teachers here in the high school, and for always being real.

Kianna Semmes: I would like to thank all the teachers and staff of the Hood River County School District.

Kameron Walker: I would like to thank all my coaches especially Steve Noteboom and Mr. Coach Harjo for making every year fun in basketball and baseball. Steve made my senior basketball season more exciting than I could have imagined and baseball since freshman year is a thrill with Harjo.

Teresa Flores: I would like to thank all my teachers of course for helping me get through high school. My boss Derek Nielson for being the real MVP! And balancing my work schedule so I don't get behind in school. My parents, I can't thank them enough for everything they've taught me throughout life.

Taylor Simonds: I would like to thank all the teachers and staff at HRVHS, even the ones I didn't particularly like. They all taught me something, and I'm thankful for the education they provided.

Hannah Simons: I would like to thank the community of Hood River for giving me some of the greatest memories of my life. I will never forget the people that I have met over the last 18 years.

Terri Hewitt: I would like to thank all my coaches and teachers for showing me so much support through high school. You all helped me get to where I am today.

Lauren Winans: I would like to thank Mr. Ames and Lindsay Weseman for being of my biggest supporters in school and athletics. I would also like to thank my FFA advisors for helping me discover my passion.

Jesus Becerra: I would like to thank Sole-Acosta for teaching me more about life, and Spanish. Mr. Case for just being awesome. Mr. Judah, for always helping me when I needed help in writing and motivation for motorcycles. Mr. Kelly, for not only being a great teacher, but also an even better friend. And the Entire Community of Hood River for creating such a friendly and interesting environment for all the HRV Alumni.

Lucas Campos: I would like to thank Mr. Tactay for always making math fun.

Delaney Barbour: Thanks to Krum for always being there. Thanks to Mr. Case for being one of the main reasons I graduated. Thanks to Mrs. Noteboom for actually getting me in college. Thanks to Ana for kicking my butt and making me a better performer.

Lani Euwer: I want to thank Krum, Mr. Case, and Ms. Hosaka. Despite my deplorable attendance, health issues, and bad breath, you believed in me and encouraged me and helped me (quite literally) survive high school. I love you guys.

Madison Graham: I want to thank Mrs. Ramsey for always helping me configure my thoughts on a tough Writing 122 assignment. I want to thank Mr. Tactay for teaching me to not worry too much, and when in doubt, listen to Bob Marley. I want to thank Mrs. Noteboom for helping me become a better writer and student. I want to thank Butcher, Runyan, Clarkson, and Ames for enhancing my love of science.

Owen Kozec: I would like to thank Cooper Holzman, Jonathan Hale, Mr. Tactay, my parents, and Hillary Clinton.

Cooper Holzman: Thank you Mr. Steighner. You have taught me discipline better than any other adult. Not to do what others tell me, but know and act on what is right for me and my future. So thank you very much.

Jessica Dehart: I would like to thank everyone who has supported me throughout my wrestling career. Everyone who has is the reason I am still wrestling.

Alex Chadney: I want to thank Krum for breaking me out of my shell my freshman year and making the theatre a place that I could go to get away from all the stresses of school life, Mr. Butcher for encouraging me to go into engineering, as well as teaching me how to be nice to the mortals. Finally, I want to thank my Nordic coaches, Bonnie, Walter, Rutger, and Joe for pushing me to give it my all at every race and every practice.

Noah Chase: Aside from all the jokes I've made (which were totally awesome and not lame at all), there are some people I'd really like to thank who have helped me these past four years at HRVHS. First of all I'd like to say thank you to Mrs. Harkema for laughing at my example sentences about blueberry bagels which I'm pretty sure have shown up in those annoying conventions packets we've had to repeat every year. I'd also like to thank Mr. Clarkson, Mr. Haspella, and Mr. Ames for making science fun. I really liked learning about outer-space and my freshman year, and biology was fun to me as well. The experiments in chemistry were exciting and kept my eyes wide open during that class. Overall you guys were great teachers. I'd also like to thank Mrs. Webster for encouraging me to write more stories for my weekly essays in her junior and senior English classes. It really got me into writing and I'll keep that with me when I leave HRV. I would also like to thank my Tae Kwan Do instructor Mr. Evans for teaching me good life lessons as I grew up. Also Krohl, Profe Hay and Profe Mudry all deserve to be thanked because they're all awesome. If you haven't taken a language class I really recommend taking Spanish. I didn't try out French but I loved Spanish here and will take it in college (not collage) next year.

Dallen Olmstead: I would like to thank all the teachers I had for helping me whenever I went to them and asked for help. I would also like to thank my parents and my grandma for giving me everything they never had and making it easier for my brother and I to live an easy life. "I live the life I deserve, blessed."

Cameron Malone: I would first like to thank Mr. Case for being patient with me; I'll turn in those articles eventually. Also, Mr. Judah for introducing me to some new authors, same for Maddiomo Bueno, I probably never would have read John Green without you.

Amethyst Lane: I would like to thank Mrs. Moline for never giving up on me when I struggled with math you're the best math teacher I've ever had. I'd like to thank Mrs. Bentley for being the best counselor and helping me get through a lot. I'd like to thank Sadil for being a tough on me in English and always making fun of me. I'd also like to thank Nan Noteboom for helping me my junior year along with being my school mom and Mr. Correa for being a homie. Thank you all for everything you've done for me!

Alex Buschauer: I would like to thank Mr. Tactay for being an awesome teacher and an all-around awesome guy in general too. I wanna thank Mrs. Charity for my psychology class sophomore year and for being a family friend since I can remember. Lastly I would like to thank my lacrosse coach Suds for pushing the team to be better on and off the field and making my last year of high school lacrosse the best one too.

Michaela Bisbee: All of my teachers! You guys are awesome! I always knew, without a doubt, that you guys had my back and that you guys really did want to see us all do well. Thanks for putting up with me!

Alex Gutierrez: I will like to thank Coach Jaime Rivera for shaping the boys soccer program and for taking the boys program out of the shadows. For making us run the stairs every Sunday morning, and for bring back the first ever 5A state championship.

Luis Lopez: Lisa from the summit office Duh.

Maria Gamboa: I would like to thank Mrs. Moline for being one of the best math teachers ever! Webster for being understanding and letting me turn things in late. Jonnie for being one of the best mentors to work with, and Goode for helping me understand French.

Piper Weatherill: I would like to thank Cassie for keeping me sane.

Gabriela Marquez: I would like to thank Piper Weatherill and Luis Lopez for keeping it hunnid.

Jorge Calderon: I'd like to thank Mrs. Moline, Mrs. Webster, Mr. Ames, and Mrs. Olson for the motivation and for making learning actually fun.

Brandon Campos: I would like to thank Mr. Noteboom for being an awesome basketball coach all through high school. I want to thank Mrs. Webster for being an awesome teacher and always giving me advice on my papers whenever I needed it, and Steve Mellor for always helping me out with Math when I needed it.

Alejandra Ledezma: I would like to thank Mrs. Webster for helping me improve in my writing. I would also like to thank Ms. Honn for motivating me to try my hardest. Thank you to Mrs. Roeske and Ann Zuehlke for dealing with my crazy life. Thank you Fults for making me laugh every morning and that's saying a lot, because I am not a morning person. Thank you Mrs. Goode for making my last year of French fun. Thank you Mrs. Davis for making science interesting even though I hate science, and I wish you and your baby the best. Even though Mrs. Stevens isn't teaching here anymore, I would like to thank her for enlightening a flame in my heart and sharing her passion for French with me.

Maria Marquez: I would like to thank Mrs. Webster for going out of her way to help me in writing, Tactay for his amazing math and artistic skills, Mrs. Malak for being such an inspiration and helping out with the NAHS club, and Kroll for allowing me to be a part of the wrestling family.

Reyna Serrano: I would like to thank Ms. Webster for always cutting me slack and sharing her tea. Tactay for letting me know it's okay to suck at math. Kroll for allowing me to be a part of the wrestling family and Yasui and Noteboom for never cutting me slack. If it weren't for you guys I never would have made it.

Scottie Ziegner: I'd like to thank Mr. and Mrs. Noteboom for always believing in me and pushing me to do my best. I'd like to thank the lunch ladies for never giving me a hard time and letting me take as much food as I wanted. I'd like to thank all my friends for being them. You know who you are. Maybe. And my mom and dad. And my dog Bruno. Ah you to coach Hiatt.

Scott Kellett: I would like to thank those who spread inspiration every day. So many of you all will grow up to do great things.

Senior Wills

Scarlett Adams: I will my punny humor to Elizabeth Bailey. I will my paper tearing skills to Brynn Searcy.

Kelsey Wells: I would like to will all of my stolen lacrosse balls to Zoe Munn, my rebounds per game to Anyisa Yabarra, my procrastination skills to Tanner Wells and he also gets my sink in the bathroom, and Hannah Mcnerney, Zoe Munn and Kaylin Winans get all of the huge I leave behind. Kaylin you are also now the president of the huge club. I want to will Bella Lee the patience and strength to handle Carlos and Noah by herself next year. I wish you luck.

Elisabeth Mixon: I will my love of skiing to Melissa Nardone. I will my ability to leave my house as late as possible and still manage to get to school on time (usually) to my brother TC. Megumi Hosaka: I will my loud and powerful cheering voice to Mikiko Hosaka, keep school spirit cool. I will my ability to always be breaking it down to Ruby Guenther. To Autumn Inouye I will my mediocre math and physics brain, may it bring you comfort but probably not knowledge. I will all underclassmen my impeccable music taste, it is far better to be a dancing queen than a trap queen.

Eva Kahn: I will all of my willpower to the upcoming senior class. Try to go to school at least once a week. It's probably(?) worth it.

Breanna Weekly: I will the conference table in Keller's room to my sister and her friends! Good luck with that Keller!

Roger Osborne: I will the confidence to stand up for what you believe no matter who they are. I pass down the ability to see the smokescreen of fake images people portray themselves as.

Cleo Koerner: I will my passion of RGB and travel to Charley Boonstra.

Annelise Acosta: I will my sweet ride and early 2000s CDs to Livi, try to keep mom and dad happy xoxo. I will my undying love for the bean game to Patrick and Livi N. To Camaryn, Tia, and Vanessa, I will my hilarious joke (you know the one) and all the taco bell ya'll can eat. I will my good behavior to Jasper, Miguel, and Cody. Stay out of trouble. I will Nicki M my booty drop and fake eyelashes, not that you need them.

Rory Krehbiel: I will my parking spot to Blaise Kaufman. I wish to give my barefootedness to my amazing brother Jasper Krehbiel. For ShmE-maly I leave my royalty status in hopes she continues the princess tradition. I will my dress obsession and my falling downness to Cathryn Kellett. For Livia Newcomb I leave the knowledge that she is beautiful inside and out "how 'bout them apples"!!! I will Olivia Acosta my cute little brother with the dark hair and big mouth (you know the one). Cody Kendall gets all the best stories! (So, I lived down the street from this park) Matthew McCravey gets my love of pudding and popsicles when I'm sick! Last, but surely not least I bequeath my artistic skills to Blake Winner.

Rhianna Salman: "I will my earth shattering shriek of a laugh to Olivia Acosta. I will Cody Kendall my super safe driving maneuvers and my undying love for Princess Rory. Take care of her. I will my MVP status to Emily Spaceship. I will my never ending flow of sass and sarcasm to Livi Newcomb. I will Cathryn Kellett: my mismatched socks. I will Jasper Krehbiel my sword fighting skills. I will Miguel Vasquez my crazy, beautiful little sister with the long brown hair."

Amy White: I will my everything to Jessica Hardy. Keep on singing! I will center field and bunting to Jacqui Oropeza. I am so proud of you! General shout out to Jade Perkins for being so amazing 24/7.

Jennifer Garcia: I will my good hair days to Ashley Izarraraz, my driving skills to Daisy Matias, and my good grades to Isaias Garcia.

Shamas Ealy: I will my determination and inspiration to all those music lovers and poem writers, my awesome goatee, and my good ol' Irish looks and wits.

Anneke Virk: I will speeding down the curves to Laura Scarborough, and my long lasting linger to Ruby Guenther.

Dakota Bickle: I would like to leave whatever impromptu skills I possess to Darrian Thomas, and all the hidden areas at Speech and Debate tournaments to Olivia Acosta.

Avery Holyoak: Every single donut in the Safeway bakery goes to Madi Wafford. My father, and his love of My Little Pony, goes to Brynn Searcy. Elizabeth Bailey gets my ability to quit anything and everything at any given time. To Anna Ralph and Ellie Smith, I will my fantastic bussing skills. I will Wicho my love of anime. All of the clothes in Ann's closet go to Sally Evans. I will my ability to do nothing to my hair and have it look amazing to Victoria Kohner-Flannagan. And lastly, to Quinn Fetkenhour, I will my meager knowledge of physics in hopes that you will always remember me, your physics buddy.

Adrianna Laws: I will my loud, outgoing personality to Destiny Lumby.

Logan Glass: I will my optimism and love to Nat Needham and all my underclassmen buddies in the green room. I also will the good chair in the light booth to whoever's foolish enough to take my spot. Good luck!

Carolina Torres: I will my record of good conduct to my cousins Jenny Cardenas and Adal Martinez (please stay out of trouble guys). I also will my smartness, good looks, and sense of humor to Andrew Roberts, because he really needs them (jk, love you). Lastly, I want to will my swag to Madeline Cunningham and Zak Ellsworth.

Cayla Sacre: I'd like to will my role as Phoenix Good Cop to Claire Hamada, my role as dance captain to Olivia Acosta and Casey Holzman, and my love of "Friends" to Miguel Vasquez.

Conner Curtis: I will my sick car rep to whoever can match it (#youcant). I will my 4 class a day schedule to all juniors, because come on guys, you really don't need all those classes.

Chloe Godwin: I will my amazing organizational and planning skills to Tiffany Berquist, my FFA officer position as secretary to Tyson Miller. I'd also like to will Tanner Glenn all of my Government papers.

Lucero Munoz: I will my good grades, responsible personality, and my favorite parking space in front of the flag pole to Diana Munoz.

I also will my Marcus Mariota football, running skills to Dallas Buckley (Skeet), hopefully he can live up to my expectations.

Nancy Funez: I will my love for cheer to Madison Kern, Madeline Cunningham, Hannah Hart, and Madi Wofford. I will my art skills to Jonah Tactay, Juan Ledezma, Lexi Viramontes, and Juli Badillo. To Gil Evangelista and Ivan Martinez I will my good grades in science class, #squad. I will Gio Magana, Marco Cuevas, and Emmy Robles my competence in yearbook. I will my love for Justin Bieber to no one because he's mine.

Ibette Sanchez: I will some of my thugness to Juan Camarillo, you need it kid. Also to Juan, my great motivation and focus in a time of procrastination at 2am. I will my sassy, clever come-backs to Angie Olivares and Yazmin Lachino. I will my position as MECHA President to Michael Guzman and Lexi Jones. I will my ability to get up early in the morning after practically no sleep to my younger sister Briseida along with my two shelves on the shoe thing in our closet, you're welcome. I will Elizabeth Bailey some upperclassman swag even though she's already so swaggin.

Lourdes Rodriguez: I will my fabulous parking skills to Iris Flores, my marvelous math skills to Tia, Ami, and Jenissa (good luck in trig next year), my awesome poster making skills to all the underclassmen in student government, My Josh Reyes smile to Max Lane, and last but not least, I will Stat Crew to Jacki, Leslie, Violet, and Casandra.

Mason McDowell: To Victoria, I will my gainz.

Dilan Larch: I will Timothy my shapeshifting rhino to Justin Shute.

Collete Zack: I would like to give the number 11 varsity soccer jersey to Jenissa Ramirez :)

Emmalyse Brownlee: I will the care of the bowe, Krum's keys, mason jar, and glasses to all my techs. I will the charge of the green room to Olivia Acosta. I will the job of coffee runs for yourself and Krum to Claire Hamada and Joshua Breedlove, and finally my position of "always in the theatre do I even have other classes" I will to Vicente Calderon.

Olga Mendiola: I will my procrastination to Sandra Martinez, because I mean I've procrastinated all 4 years and I still made it. I will my lunch table to Nora's squad, and you guys better sit there.

Samuel Ortiz: I would like to will my crown and royal highness to incoming freshman Cielo Madrigal. Always remember a queen is never late, everyone else is simply early.

Melissa Evangelista: I will my procrastination to my younger brother Ramon Evangelista.

Casandra Schweitz: I would like to will my sassy attitude to Sarah Iobst and Jayden Shelton, even though you guys are both fireballs already Katie Middel: I will my flying abilities in cheer to Rosie Dillion, Madi Woffard, and Alexa Jimenez. I will Kelsey Beam an unlimited amount of black eye cures and pre-comp pep talks/prayers and my RBF. I will Skylar Van Tilburg my lack of main-basing abilities ("cause you don't need em"). I will Dominique Silva my permission to kick whoever you want out of your car and make them run. I will Kassidy Davidson my Pitch Perfect singing abilities and credit to surviving a 18 hour road trip with Noodles. I will Yahaira Gutierrez my twerk skills and ghetto Subaru. I will Parker Kennedy his awkward hand. I will Kellan Duffy my camping spot at Tucker. Lastly, I will D-buck and the remainder of the chong squad my sparkly hydro-flask and ability to make things happen.

Hannah Barry: I would like to will my puppy, sunset hikes, and movie nights to Skyler Hunter. I will my car to Dallas Buckley. I will my laughing problems to Maya Anderson.

Alyssa Shoaf: I will my love for The Big Bang Theory, curling up to watch movies, and Dr. Pepper to Montana Kurahara. Also, my ability to be huge and my love for food to my girl Kaylin Winans. I also will my love for scary movies to Noah Noteboom.

More Senior Wills

Yonathan Garcia: I will my GPA and parking spot against the fence in the Jock Lot to Ivan Montoya

Samuel Raulston: I will the skills of team Mexico to Willem Dickinson, because we all know he needs them.

Olivia Brink: I will my “Mama Brink” role to Laura Scarbrough, she may not want it but we both know that those boys will need it. I will my leadership role on the cheer team to Kelsey Beam.

Madison Freeman: I’m willing Ben Dane’s fear of homeless people to Lauren Robinson, my scowling to Maddi Carr and Durian, my spot in the Kumbaya circle to Zoe Sheppard, and the Dutch Bros pickups to Nate Miller.

Alejandra Sanchez: I will the table by the nacho line to Nora and her squad.

Kianna Semmes: I will my good attitude, social skills, and the ability to have fun.

Kameron Walker: I will my All-American second base skills to Patrick Harvey and also my spot on the varsity team so he doesn’t have to play JV anymore. I will my white lightning speed to Skyler Hunter so maybe one day he can be fast. I will my powerful gluteus maximus to Kellan Duffy so he can maybe hit the ball next year. I will my humor to Parker Kennedy and I will my dance skills to all the people who want to get down next year. I will my swagger to Dallas Buckley ‘cause he looks like a bum.

Teresa Flores: I will my party days to Daisy Matias and Ashley.

Taylor Simonds: I will my sick parking spot, and my ability to get up 15 minutes early to have time to stop for coffee, to Maddy Simonds, I also will her my sass, but she doesn’t really need any more of that :) I will my athletic wear to Ruby Guenther, and my “I scored a goal” dance to Yahi, she is required to carry on the tradition.

Hannah Simons: I will all of my old, used pointe shoes to the future dancers at CGDA, so that they may sell them for profit when I am famous. I will my cat all of the extra yarn that I have not used in my knitting projects, and I will our lunch spot to future squad.

Lauren Winans: I will Kaylin my spots on the Athletic Development board, Gaby my craftiness, Bella my sass, Tiffany my TA chair and good decision making skills, Jackie my ability to play “mom,” Jazlinn my chauffeur job, Natasha my height, and Linsey my dance moves.

Jesus Becerra: I, Turkmasterflex, of the Ever-So-Buff-Mountains, will my abilities to skip school and be late to the Loc $quad (Alex Valdez, Emy Gutierrez, Erik Cuevas). I also will my abilities to drive like a beast in the jock lot to Mario Sandoval.

Lucas Campos: I would will my track ability to my brother Gabe Campos-Davis, but he seems to have collected that early.

Delaney Barbour: I will my Barbour-ness to my brother, Zach. I will my crazy Phoenix nazi mom-ness to Olivia Acosta. I will my alto leader abilities to Victoria. I will my good hugs to Miguel and Nick Molina. I will my fast line learning abilities to Emma. I will my never leaving the theatre to all of Phoenix. I will my love of games to Claire Hamada. I will my funny quips to Cody Kendall, but he’s already got that covered.

Noelani Euwer: I will my incurable senioritis to Elizabeth Bailey because honey you need it.

Madison Graham: I will my old clothes, my lifeguarding uniform, and my secret No-Bake Cookie recipe to Elizabeth Bricker. I will my #1 singles spot on the tennis team to Olivia Newcomb. I will Camaryn Chambers my locker. I will my seat in Calculus, and my awkward 4-H State Ambassador polo to Payton Rigert.

Owen Kozec: I will my epic rap writing skills to Myles Cameron so he can carry on the legacy. I will my perfectly shaped eyebrows to Ellen Hudon. I will my ability to hold glass items in grocery stores to Austin Marques.

Cooper Holzman: I will my car to Casey Holzman. My license to Casey Holzman. My room to Casey Holzman. My half-ton pallet of Special K Strawberry fields to Casey Holzman. I ability to pick my nose without caring if people watch. My farmer tan, large amount of swag, focused intelligence, and all my friends to Casey Holzman. And Sawyer Bogard gets my tennis experience.

Jessica DeHart: I will my sassiness, my way to annoy Keller, and my card making skills to Zoe Munn. I will the toughness of women’s wrestling in Hood River to Payton Rigert, Sarah Sullenger, and Joanna Endow (Kick butt next year)!

Alexander Chadney: I will my Nordic waxing skills to Zoe Shepard, and my uncanny ability to break skis to Jesse Wiley.

Noah Chase: I will my will to Will Smith. I also will Mosan Stolhand my Fallout 3 character with level seven luck because he’ll need it for when my younger sister and his brother start attending HRV next year. Justin Shute has the best hair in the land and he will be danced around and probably thrown into a fire as is the natural reaction to silk spun that fine. With this said I would like to will him a fire extinguisher, neon pumps, and a skimpy leather outfit of mine that I’m willing to part with (because it’s a senior will hahaha jokes) in hopes that he brings all the participants of cross dressing day to shame. I also sponsor Justin to Re’lar, for he speaks the name of the wind every time his hair dances with the opening of a door and has demonstrated he knows the name of pop by creating the ring on his middle finger. That means he made a Ring Pop.

Dallen Olmstead: “I will my swag to the rat pack, I will my luscious locks and my goalie abilities to Mikey Hall, my power to graduate to Zane Webber.”

Marcos Trejo: I would like to will my crossovers to Noah Noteboom because quick aint fair. I will my smile and GPA to Ivan Montoya.

Cameron Malone: First of all, to Morgan Stolhand I need to will my Adam. Then of course, Hannah Hart. To you I would like to will my self-motivation and determination and initiative, you’re gonna need it. Justin Shute, to you I will my knowledge of all things cricket. I know it’s not complete so I’m leaving it to you to complete my legacy. Our legacy. And, of course, Sofia Deleon, I will you my muscular strength, including bicep power and all things quadriceptic. I also can never forget to will my hopes and dreams to the yoga club. You were going to take them anyway so I may as well just hand them over and save myself some of the pain. Oh, and Mykan? To you I will the ability to not be lame.

Amethyst Lane: I will my golden tan skin to my boi Wicho. I will Julio Verduzco my dumpster since I ran into yours with my car. I will my sassy attitude and good looks to Luis Castillo. I will my super fast running skills in Personal Fitness to Brallan Alvarez, Emy Gutierrez, Emmy Robles, and Margari to Perez. I will Joel Garcia my beautiful hair because I know how much you love it. I will Jesus Gordian my dance moves because from the videos I have of you dancing you for sure need them. I will Madi Wofford my chubby cheeks because you’re the only one who understands what it’s like to have them.

Alexander Buschauer: I will the name of “Bushy” to Quinn Fetkenhour for his masterful flow. I will my lax number 22 to Cully Bryant. Use it well. I will my various martial arts abilities to Ellie Smith cause God above knows she needs them.

Michaela Bisbee: I will my chillness and just general lack of caring to Ave. Because she’s awesome and I have deemed her worthy of this great honor

Luis Lopez: I would like to will my good looks to everyone because they all need a little help.

Maria Gamboa: I will my laziness and procrastination skills to my five incoming freshmen cousins. I will my fighting skills to Will Ferrick, wanna fight? I will Yareli Flores my amazing science skills (;

Gabriela Marquez: I will my sassy attitude and lucky math guessing skills to Jenissa Ramirez because she knows she needs it. I will my credits to Jocelyn Estrada because there’s a high probability she’ll be here next year.

Jorge Calderon: I will my gains to Sawyer, who will need it. I will my sassiness, and fire to Lexi Jones.

Brandon Campos: I want to will my good looks to Alden Sova and will my #2/1 doubles spot to Sawyer Bogard and Hugo “Juice” Sandavol. Most importantly I want to will my 3 point shot to Noah Noteboom.

Alejandra Ledezma: I will my amazon goddess height and my knowledge to the flawless Lily Magana; you’re the realest. I will my cheating skills to Nora who is already a close enough player. I will my PE skills and my parking spot to Cielo Rivera and Vanessa Silva; Love you girls. I will my locker to any loser who gets it next year even though I never used it. I will my sassiness to Mykan Malone and Jessica Lara. I will my secret basketball skills to ese Juan Ledezma. I will my procrastinating skills to Yureli Cuevas; the lord already knows how much she procrastinates.

Antonio Sandoval: I will Makena my car, I will Wicho my license, and I will Ivan my teeth.

Maria Marquez: I will my prunes to Max Lane and I will my awesome math skills to Jessica Lara.

Reyna Serrano: I will my amazing poster making skills to Payton Rigert and my awesome math skills to Jenissa Ramirez and Tia Semmes. I will my heated ODS cabin to Made Vallejo. Lastly, I will my contagious smile and great parking skills to Max Lane, never stop smiling ;).

Scott Ziegner: I will my outstanding charm to Sawyer Bogard. I also will the wack in me to Zak Ellsworth but he already has it all. I will my pranks and jokes to Lucas Viuhkola.

What is your biggest regret?

Scarlett Adams: I regret not taking Leadership earlier in high school which prevented me from becoming ASB President.

Kelsey Wells: I regret a lot of things in high school. Especially waiting my time on stupid stuff instead of having fun.

Elisabeth Mixon: I definitely regret not participating in school events as much. I should have gone to the lock-in at least once. Other than that high school has been a decent experience, but I'm glad it's over and want to go to college.

Megumi Hosaka: I regret getting too worked up about Air Guitar. Sorry if I yelled at you. I know this is why I'm not Prom Queen.

Eva Kahn: I really regret not going to that party at Lawrence Lake.

Cleo Koerner: I regret not joining the Leo's club freshman year and not participating in chamber singers sophomore year to experience a spring break trip to Ireland.

Annelise Acosta: I regret my bangs.

Rory Krehbiel: I regret not joining speech and debate because that's where all the cool cats hang (Nate M, Olivia A, Claire Hamada and Hannah Hart)!!!!
Rhianna Salman: I regret not joining theater when I was a freshman.

Regardless, I was still welcomed with open arms, cuddle puddles and the occasional thrown shoe.

Amy White: I regret not taking Spanish class more seriously.

Jennifer Garcia: The two things I regret the most are not being involved with sports and being a procrastinator my junior year.

Shamas Ealy: The one thing I regret is not taking the time to study and focus more on my classes, it really came to hurt me in the end.

Anneke Virk: I regret arm wrestling Hope in econ...that was embarrassing.

Dakota Bickle: I regret not trying harder in some of my classes.

Avery Holyoak: I regret not respecting myself and not realizing how cool and strong I was sooner. Take some time to develop love for yourselves, it makes life so much better and easier when you always have someone to count on (yourself).

Adrianna Laws: I regret not being more involved. I DO NOT regret having my son! He helped me stay in school!

Logan Glass: I regret not taking more chances. I missed so many opportunities to make friends, gain life experience, and earn extra credit because I was scared of looking ridiculous. You'll embarrass yourself whether you're being adventurous or not; it's a fact of life. You might as well make a fool of yourself doing something you love!

Cayla Sacre: I regret everything.

Laura Delgado: I regret not being involved in clubs and sports. I wish I would've met more people also.

Conner Curtis: I was a low-key high school student. Trying to get through so I can start my life. I don't regret anything I did in high school, except for not doing burnouts in the parking lot.

Chloe Godwin: I regret not

Lucero Munoz: I regret not joining Volleyball and the Fashion club.

Jennifer Packer: I regret not running for ASB office during high school.

Kayla McCafferty: I don't regret sneaking people out in the trunk of my car, but I do regret not joining FFA.

Laura Chavez: Some of the things I regret not doing during my high school years are being more involved in sports, clubs, dances and other school activities.

Daisy Chamonica: I regret not taking freshmen year serious.

Maria Huerta: I regret slacking off in my first two years and a half in high school. I know I could have done way better even though I still met my goal.

Salvador Diaz: I regret not passing Algebra A my freshmen year.

John Gray: I regret not participating in student fire fighters.

Maria Padilla: I regret not motivating myself on getting better grades.

Jocelyn Estrada: I regret not going to all my classes, and being a bad student.

Erica Silva: I regret not putting myself out there and getting out of my comfort zone. I would've liked to join clubs, activities like air guitar and just meeting new people!

Marco Bibian: I regret not doing any air guitar.

Alison Pierce: I regret not getting involved with a lot of the class activities.

Branden Blais: I regret not having a V8, because I could've had a V8.

Alexa Lindley: I regret not getting my stuff together at a freshman and sophomore.

Riley Van Hoose: I regret not trying to play basketball and participating in more sports as possible.

Nancy Funez: I regret slacking hard my freshman year. I regret how I didn't keep playing soccer, and didn't try more sports like basketball and track. I regret some stuff from sophomore year. I regret not going to any dances my freshman year. I don't regret never getting a detention.

Ibette Sanchez: I regret not making a student government team during the Lock-In because we all have matching class shirts, missed opportunity. I also regret not participating in more clubs, or having tried a sport at least once.

Lourdes Rodriguez: I regret only have one off-site.

Caitlyn Fick: I regret not getting to hall decorating early every year because it was pretty much the best day of the week.

Janelle Pedroza: I regret not taking advantage of the opportunities I had at the high school like the clubs and organizations they have to offer. I regret taking too many hard classes but at the same time not really because the classes keep me motivated to graduate.
Collete Zack: I wish I had gone to more musicals and gone into the Summit office more often. They have so many things that can benefit you, and I never used any of them. I also wish I hadn't paid to go to the dances with only 20 people in them my freshman year.

Veronica Mendiola: I regret not being in more clubs, doing sports, and making more diverse groups of friends.

Samuel Ortiz: I regret letting what other people thought of me affect my participation in school events and socializing. I am beautiful.

Melissa Evangelista: I regret not joining more clubs and sports. I also regret not doing Air Guitar during my four years in high school.

Casandra Schweitz: I regret not being more involved in school functions.

Katie Middel: I regret not running away in the hamster balls and going down the slippin slide with Emily Viuhkola at our Junior Luau.

Hannah Barry: I regret not putting myself out there and doing more sports and activities.

Alyssa Shoaf: I regret not doing more sports and realizing how important my GPA was sooner than my Junior year.

Gisela Ayala: I regret not paying attention and caring about the upper-classmen telling us about our freshmen year being the most important year because it can affect us the most.

Yonathan Garcia: I don't regret anything I've done in the past because its made me the person I am today.

Yesenia Mendoza: My regret is not joining any sport.

Kianna Semmes: I regret not doing all of my work and school and not having the guts to sign up for things at school events. (homecoming week, air gutair, bonfire games.)

Kameron Walker: I regret being really fat until Junior year.

Taylor Simonds: I regret not actually being involved in any of the clubs I signed for freshman year at the club fair. Whoops.

Terri Hewitt: I regret not participating in more sports my freshman year.

Lauren Winans: I regret not being a cheerleader.

Jesus Becerra: I regret not being more involved in the poetry club, chess club, and fashion club. I especially regret not being more active in GSA.

Lucas Campos: I wish I had joined Speech and Debate as a freshman.

Delaney Barbour: I regret not trying out water polo.

Noelani Euwer: I regret not believing in myself. I'm a pretty rad fella, once I figured that out I had a whole lot more fun in High School.

Madison Graham: I regret not taking Mrs. Ramsey's Survey of American Literature class.

Owen Kozec: I regret not becoming friends with Cooper Holzman sooner.

Cooper Holzman: I wish I had met Owen Kozec earlier.

Alexander Chadney: I regret not acting in any of the winter plays, as well as not continuing on with Speech and Debate after my freshman year.

Noah Chase: I regret not going to the bathroom when I had to. My only defense is that public bathrooms are scary.

Marcos Trejo: I regret not shooting the basketball whenever I had an open look during the game. My shot be like Stephen Curry's.

Cameron Malone: I almost regret tearing down the Senior flag, but I stop just short of full regret out of spite.

Amethyst Lane: I regret not participating in more clubs, trying harder to improve my GPA, and wasting my time on people who weren't worth it.

Alexander Buschauer: I mean, other than the cliché "I should have gotten a better GPA"; or "I should of joined more clubs", not really. I got through it and I learned from mistakes and I'm better now because of it. Why have regrets? Philosophical Bushy out.
Michaela Bisbee: I believe the one thing I will always regret is not pushing myself more. Pushing myself to get out of my shell. Pushing myself to do better in my classes. Seeing now all of the friends I could have made or relationships that could have been stronger. Knowing that I had the capability to do so much better academically. It's disappointing to say the least. One word of advice to coming generations? Don't be afraid to just step out there and give it your all.

Luis Lopez: I regret not dating Piper Weatherill. ;)

Gabriela Marquez: I regret nothing because nothing fazes me.

Jorge Calderon: I regret nothing.

Brandon Campos: I regret not joining any clubs.

Alejandra Ledezma: I regret not watching enough Netflix. I will FOREVER regret the day I met Jorge Calderon (stuck with him in college). #SadLife
Scott Ziegner: I regret not playing football. I also regret never reaching my full potential academically. But after seeing the senior class stress over hard classes I'm over it.

Seniors' future plans

Scarlett Adams: I will be moving to Portland in the fall, and studying journalism at Portland Community College. I hope to take a year abroad to an exotic place.

James Estes: I am attending Western Oregon University next fall

Kelsey Wells: Go to Mt. Hood community college and live in a sweet apartment with Alyssa Shoaf. We're going to have so much fun. FBGM.

Beth Mixon: I will be ski racing for The College of Idaho. I want to major in human performance so I can be a sports physical therapist.

Megumi Hosaka: I will attend the University of Washington next fall.

Eva Kahn: I'm going to Clark Honors College at the University of Oregon next year!

Breanna Weekly: I will be attending Linfield College and majoring in nursing.

Roger Osborne: I plan to attend college at CGCC and work full time jobs until I get my associates and transfer into a four year.

Cleo Koerner: I am taking a gap year which will involve traveling, volunteering and applying to a 4 year university which I will attend in the fall of 2016.

AnnElise Acosta: I plan to attend University of Utah to study social work.

Rory Krehbiel: I plan to take a gap year and then head to EOU!

Rhianna Salmon: I plan to attend Western Washington University in Bellingham, Washington. I'm a pre-med major.

Amy White: I am going to attend Clackamas Community College and live in an apartment with my sister, Katie White, in Oregon City. I plan on becoming a bilingual ultrasound technician and returning to Hood River.

Jennifer Garcia: My plan is to attend Western Oregon University this upcoming fall with my best friend.

Shamas Ealy: Either continuing work with my band, LEVI, and concentrating on getting somewhere, or going to college for a business degree. I'd rather be a touring musician to be honest.

Anneke Virk: I'm going to Chapman University to study biology and dance.

Dakota Bickle: I plan to attend the University of Oregon where I will study History and attempt to learn German. Either that, or I'll just rob banks.

Delaney Barbour: Receive a BFA in Acting at Southern Oregon University.

Lani Euwer: I might go to Pacific University on a voice scholarship and I might stay home and attend CGCC and I might become homeless and I might be abducted by aliens and I might sell ugly furniture and I might spontaneously combust and I might contract Ebola.

Maddy Graham: I plan to attend the University of Arizona to study biomedical engineering and business. While I'm there, I want to get involved in "Engineers Without Borders" and play club tennis.

Owen Kozec: University of Oregon -- something genius -- success!

Cooper Holzman: Attending the University of Southern California. Majoring in popular music performance and minoring in music technology.

Jessica Dehart: I will be attending Southern Oregon University and wrestling on their women's wrestling team.

Alex Chadney: I am attending Oregon State University Cascades campus in Bend, Oregon. I plan to compete in Nordic Ski racing for OSU through the Mt. Bachelor Sports Education Foundation.

Noah Chase: Spider-Man

Dallen Olmstead: going to Portland community college to get my welding degree

Marcos Trejo: I will be attending Oregon State University and hope to major in Kinesiology to become a Physical Therapist.

Cameron Malone: After I high school I plan to travel for a short while, but then I'm going to work and go to college.

Amethyst Lane: I'm going to be rich and famous because I'll be married to Zac Efron and we will move to Hawaii and live happily ever after Alex Buschauer: I'm planning to go to Western Oregon next year and room with Rily Wilson. I'm going to try out for the club lax team there and see how I do. Not completely sure what I wanna major in but I would like to do something in criminal justice. Like investigating, forensics, or maybe computer science. I'm just going to try out a few things and see what interests me the most. My ultimate goal would be to get into the FBI.

Michaela Bisbee: CGCC!....So exciting, I know.

Alex Gutierrez: After High School I will be playing soccer at Eastern Oregon University.

Luis Lopez: I plan to worry about myself and werkkkkk to get that mula $$$

Maria Gamboa: My plans after High School are to attend Western Oregon University and go into education.

Piper Weatherill: I don't even know what I'm going to wear tomorrow.

Gabriella Marquez: Leave this town obviously and try not to fail at life.

Jorge Calderon: Go to college and pursue my dreams.

Brandon Campos: I plan on attending Mt. Hood community college then transferring over to Washington State University, if my mind changes within the next year I will attend the University of Dubuque in Iowa to play college tennis. I want to major in nursing and become a Certified Registered Nurse Anesthetist.

Alejandra Ledezma: To attend PSU and major in Criminal Justice.

Antonio Sandoval: Attend MHCC

Veronica Marquez: After high school I will be attending Utah Valley University.

Reyna Serrano: After high school I plan to attend Utah Valley University. Scottie Ziegner: Play basketball and tennis at Treasure Valley Community College. Study in the field of Criminal Justice. Become a secret Agent.

Favorite memories

James Estes: My favorite memory was going to prom my junior year

Kelsey Wells: The bus rides back from Pendleton and singing Disney songs with my teams. You guys are the only reason I survived high school. Thank you.

Elisabeth Mixon: TBH, my favorite memories were when I missed school for a ski race at a cool mountain. I mean, coming back to failing all my classes wasn't great but the traveling with friends was awesome. :D

Megumi Hosaka: When Anneke and I ditched class a lil early to march in the pre-assembly band parade, and we were caught by the Hood River News.

Eva Kahn: My favorite memory is watching Bill Maher, Jon Stewart, and Michael Moore every day during Economics. Awesome

Breanna Weekly: I will never forget playing softball with my best friends! Especially my junior softball season when we had an amazing winning season and almost made it to the championships.

Roger Osborne: Doing stats for the girls basketball team and seeing my old best friend while at an away game for the first time in eight years.

Cleo Koerner: Visiting the primate center in Beaverton with Ms.Davis' RGB class was an incredible experience that I will never forget.

Annelise Acosta: My favorite memory is driving around Hood River at 1 AM looking for cake, a water bottle, and funnels. Also when Rhianna drove across the lawn to skip the bus line. Sorry Polkinghorn <3.

Rory Krehbiel: My favorite memory of high school is driving around at 1am looking for cake, a water bottle, and funnels!

Rhianna Salman: My favorite memory of high school is driving around at 1 a.m. looking for cake, a water bottle, and funnels. Also, that one time when I drove across the lawn to avoid the long line of crazed high school drivers. Sorry Polkinghorn <3.

Amy White: My favorite high school memory would be receiving Coach's Award and Most Inspirational on JV Soccer my junior year.

Jennifer Garcia: My favorite high school memory is going to my last bonfire and meeting my high school sweetheart, Austin Winans, there. :)

Shamas Ealy: I'll never forget the performance my old band, Atriad, did during the Arts Assembly sophomore year. That was some intense nervous energy and excitement.

Anneke Virk: I'll never forget beating Megumi Hosaka in jousting at the Luau my sophomore year.

Dakota Bickle: The Odyssey video that Garrett Kelly and I made for our Sophomore English class. It was difficult to make and took a lot of work, but most of the people seemed to enjoy it, so it was worth it.

Avery Holyoak: Getting called into Pauls' office for the drag race. #dragraceonalemeda #bringyourtitles

Adrianna Laws: I will never forget proving everybody wrong that having a baby will stop you from graduating.

Carolina Torres: Olive Garden for Amethyst's 18th birthday with Luis, Alyssa, and Nancy. I have never laughed so hard. Oh and being a basketball manager was the best thing that happened to me. Met so many great people, and made so many great memories I will never forget. Nancy you the real MVP :)

Cayla Sacre: I'd have to say that my favorite memories are performing the Lindy at the senior assembly my sophomore year, opening night of "Does My Head Look Big In This?", premiering my one act, and DJ-ing Femme Power Hour.

Laura Delgado: My freshmen year, second semester, is a high school memory I will never forget, I was the new girl from Cali. I met so many great people and a specific group of them let me in their circle. They made school not so bad.

Connor Curtis: Getting rowdy at basketball games and messing with underclassmen.

Chloe Godwin: My favorite high school memory is making it to state in OHSET with my one and only Mexican brother, Michael Cuevas. We're da bomb bro!

Lucero Munoz: My favorite high school memory is during my sophomore year at the Lock-In. I had a great time with all my friends.

Jennifer Packer: I'll never forget playing in the state semi-finals in softball my junior year, it was an amazing and unforgettable experience.

Laura Chavez: One of my favorite high school memories is passing my EA project with an A after thinking I was not going to graduate because of not passing my project.

Daisy Chamonica: My favorite high school memory was my first Lock-In (freshmen year) and senior air guitar.

Maria Huerta: My favorite high school memories are the good times that me and my friends had.

Salvador Diaz: My favorite high school memory was when I scored a bicycle kick goal in a soccer tournament in the upstairs gym.

Christian Marquez: Winning three state titles.

Hannah Simons: I will never forget Mr. Butcher's dance to gangnam style during the staff air guitar.

Nancy Funez: It's hard to name something I'll never forget from high school because high school is a place where you learn a lot of new things. Some of which are good life lessons that you should never forget, because they'll help you out in the future.

Ibette Sanchez: I'll never forget the different kinds of people I've met and the friendships I made. I'll never forget how family-like our school is, especially among overall classes. I'll always remember the time Jesse Sanchez and I convinced a few people that we were twins.

Lourdes Rodriguez: Getting lost at the high school on link day freshmen year.

Caitlyn Fick: I'll never forget Mr. Butcher dressed up as a Barbie girl in Air Guitar.

Janelle Pedroza: My favorite high school memory is getting to go to dances and events with my friends and having the time of my life with them.

Collete Zack: I will never forget beating Wilsonville in the playoffs at home my senior soccer season or the soccer bus rides my sophomore year.

Olga Mendiola: Having a date with Uriel Rodriguez freshman year. It was totally awkward. My friends suck.

Samuel Ortiz: My favorite high school memory was doing air guitar my senior year and realizing it's one of the last times I'll ever see my classmates again because I'll be happy that we spent the last four years together.

Katie Middel: I'll never forget the lunches where everyone is sitting outside in the court yard, playing hacky-sack, and listening to some good tunes and surrounded by good friends.

Hannah Barry: Being able to cheer for my school and becoming super close to my teammates and I will never forget our camp memories.

Allysa Shoaf: Probably not the best memory, but definitely something I won't forget is fainting at my senior bonfire during the egg blow.

Gisela Ayala: I will never forget Homecoming Week. Even though everything is crazy during that week, it is the one week we celebrate being Eagles the most. Every year Homecoming is different, but it's a fun week for us all in the school. I also will never forget the Lock-In. I will miss HRVHS.

Olivia Brink: I will never forget cheering at games, practicing with my favorite group of girls, and giving my pre-game speech.

Alejandra Sanchez: I will never forget homecoming week.

Kianna Semmes: I'll never forget the football games where we all sat together and had so much school spirt and cheered for our team like a big family.

Kameron Walker: I will never forget Prom 2015 and I will never forget the baseball team's playoff run to the state game in 2014.

Teresa Flores: My favorite high school memory was stepping into the High school the first day of my freshmen year and the first day of my senior year and thinking back to how far I've came.

Taylor Simonds: My favorite high school memory is eating lunch in the courtyard.

Terri Hewitt: My favorite high school memory was going to the pumpkin patch with the cross-country team the day before state.

Lauren Winans: My favorite high school memories have been all of my athletic experiences.

Jesus Becerra: How interesting everyone else is at the school and how uniquely every individual reacts to everyday situations. Whether that be in class, walking in to school, or in the halls. So I guess it'd be the environment is something that I'll never forget.

More senior memories

Alexander Buschauer: My favorite high school memory would have to be finally getting around to do Air Guitar this year. I don't usually do stuff like that but it was such a blast.

Lucas Campos: Finally getting my full also name on things from the school.

Delaney Barbour: I will never forget watching Scarlett eat 21 mini snickers bars. That will live forever in infamy.

Noelani Euwer: Any of the high school dances I attended after my sophomore year's homecoming. That year I wore a bright red dress and danced like a maniac. Everyone (rumor has it even some teachers) thought I was insane or on drugs but I was fine, just having some good old, wholesome, sober fun. I became known to many infamously as "that crazy chic in the red dress from homecoming" and I liked my new label so much I have tried to live up to the legacy by dancing more and more crazily at every dance I have attended since.

Madison Graham: Chilling in Tac-tay's room late at night with a classroom full of twenty other stressed out calculus students right before a big test. I was never alone--we were all stressed out together.

Owen Kozec: 4th of July 2014, down town with Cooper Holzman, and Jonathan Hale watching the fireworks.

Cooper Holzman: Meeting Owen Kozec.

Jessica DeHart: I will never forget how amazing our 2014 softball team was and making it to the semi-finals.

Alexander Chadney: My fondest memory is of my very first Nordic race my freshman year. It was a 3k skate loop, and I was EXCRUCIATINGLY slow. I wanted to give up after the first lap, since I was falling every few feet. My team was going to have none of that, so they skied out to me and skied along side me for the remaining few hundred meters of the race, cheering me on the entire way.

Noah Chase: My favorite high school memory was when Cameron Malone, Tanner Glenn and I tore off the senior banner homecoming week during our freshman year at lunch and ripped it up in front of the whole senior class. The part I don't want to talk about was when we were called to the office and asked to pick up the pieces that we left there while the seniors booed us.

Dallen Olmstead: Skipping school and going to the beach.

Marcos Trejo: I will never forget the wonderful people who I met throughout High School. They all impacted my life in some sort of way. I also won't forget the feeling of winning state, looking up to the stands, and watching all those people cheer us on. It was an unbelievable feeling.

Cameron Malone: I remember when I went to prom Junior year. Turn down for what came on and I thought to myself, "Ah yeah, time to take a page from Young MC and 'Bust a move'." So naturally I wait until the beats get to kicking and then I drop chest first to the floor and glide expertly into the worm. That's always been my go to. I go on for a while, a little past the point when it starts to hurt my pelvis and that area, and figure it's time to get up. So I roll onto my back to use my shoulders as a way to hop up and back to a standing position. I've done this several times before but this time I overextended. I threw too much weight behind me and ended up hitting my head hard against the tile floor. When I finally stood up everything was blurry and sound was muffled and, of course, my head hurt. I touched the back of my head to inspect the actual damage and brought my hand back covered in blood. There's a lot of blood in the head. In the haze I turned to my date to explain why I was about to leave, "I am concussed." In short order I found myself in the main office with a maxi-pad on the back of my head and blood-stained tuxedo shirt that I was no longer renting. So I sat there, with my date who was nice enough to make sure I wasn't dying by myself in a dark room, waiting for my ride to the emergency room. Best prom ever.

Michaela Bisbee: Sophomore year, Poetry Out Loud recitals, Mr. Judah's Honors Sophomore English class. Tbh, I memorized that poem while driving home from Portland the night before lol. Interesting experience, to say the least.

Renee Gutierrez: My favorite high school memory for sure has to be going 18-0 my senior year, and bring back the first ever 5A boys soccer state championship.

Luis Lopez: My fav high school memory is porbs gonna be when i won't have to come back to school after graduating.

Maria Gamboa: Taking pictures with Kendal Colwell every day during Rafelson's Honors Sophomore English.

Piper Weatherill: My favorite high school memory will be graduating and never coming back to school.

Gabriella Marquez: My favorite memory will be leaving the fake people at this school behind.

Jorge Calderon: Our end of the year trip for Mecha my junior year. It's one of my biggest highlights of high school and will never forget the fun I had that day.

Brandon Campos: My favorite high school memories will be when my buddies Jonnie and Forest were at one of my basketball games and got a chant going on saying "We want Brandon!" Which was really awesome and another memory will be winning our conference title for tennis my senior year.

Alejandra Ledezma: Attending sporting events with my friends and homecoming week.

Reyna Serano: Prom 2014 a night to remember and when Lulu Rodriguez fell while wearing a dress at a wrestling tournament, I love you Lulu!

Scottie Ziegner: Being CRC champs for boys tennis. And never letting my teammates sleep on the bus to away games and matches.

Maria Marquez: Mr. Polkinghorn for wearing a quincenera dress and my junior year prom.

Senior Shout Outs

James Estes: Shout out to the sidewalk for keeping me off the streets

Kelsey Wells: Shout out to Beeze for being my amazing best friend even though we weren't always connected at the hip. I love you and I hate that we're going to be an hour away from each other. Alex Chadney: Shout out to Em-malyse for being the voice of reason in the theatre.

Noah Chase: Cameron James-GlenTannerSwagindrag Malone I love you. I always have and if you ever have the chance to look at my phone you’ll find numerous pictures I’ve taken of you during our wonderful time spend together in the past year (that’s when I got my phone). They are of your angelic face, the way your eyes penetrate me like daggers, the way your chiseled jawline cuts through my heart and blesses me like a thousand suns to the dark night that is my Batman, and I can’t forget the everlasting .gif repeating in my head like a pop song in a thirteen year old’s bedroom of your well conditioned hair being brushed out of your sweet eyes by my gentle hand. Oh Tiffany I love you too.

Dallen Olmstead: Shout out to James Shultz for streaking across the field freshman year at the bonfire

Marcos Trejo: Shout out to all the senior soccer players for being determined to bring home that state title! Go Eagles!

Cameron Malone: I’d like to give a shout out to Maddie Freeman for making sure I’ll always remember what not to say for a first impression. Also a shout out to my bois, I know you’re out there.

Amethyst Lane: Shout out to Carolina Torres for always laughing at my funny jokes. Shout out to Alyssa Shoaf for always being there for me and being down to eat a ton of food with me. Shout out to Nancy Funez for being there for me and most of all for being my boyfriend ;) Shout out to Carlos Chairez for being my ugly short friend :) Shout out to Yonny Garcia for being there for me over the last four years when I’ve needed someone to talk to. Shout out to Jaime Frias for always making class fun and never failing to make me laugh. Shout out to Nichole Hopkins for being my adventure buddy and letting me play with Cheeto.

Alex Buschauer: Shout out to STL of course. My king, forever and always.

Michaela Bisbee: Shout Out to Madison Meyer for being awesome and allowing me to carpool with her all year! Shout Out to Maddie Freeman, cause tbh I’m gonna miss our fetus roasting sessions and constant lack of interest. Good times guys.

Alex Gutierrez: Just want to give a quick shout out to Woody and Turkey for always having my back and for always being there when a homie is in need.

Luis Lopez: Shout-out to Teresa for helping me find this survey. Also shout-out to my Scinece Wizards Group, Bugs Group WYA? oh and ALE S.

Maria Gamboa: Shout to my favorite twins ever who have been in my life since the day they were born Reyna and Jazmin Serrano, thanks for leaving me guys you suck. Shout out to Jorge Calderon for becoming one of my bestfriends! Shout out to Veronica Marquez for teaching me how to parallel park and last but not least shout out to Melissa Evangelista for always being there for me since day one.

Piper Weatherill: Shout out to Cassie for being real. Shout out to the few people I can stand and shout out to the rest of the fake people.

Gabby Marquez: Shout out to the Bugs Group for keeping up with the 411. Shout out to Christian Marquez for being cocky and annoying to our family, but traveling the world to do what he loves.

Jorge Calderon: Shout out to my crew, Alejandra, Deysi, Gisela, Reyna, and Maria, for making my senior year a blast. And shout out to Yureli for making my life a little more fun.

Brandon Campos: Shoutout to the boys soccer team for winning the state championship this year!

Alejandra Ledezma: Shout out to nobody because everyone is shady af. JK. You guys are awesome classmates!

Antonio Sandoval: Shout out to toes for being tat.

Maria Marquez: Shout out to Jasmin, Reyna, Lulu, and Janelle for being the real MVPs. Shout out to Reyna and Jasmin Serrano for providing me with a home. Shout out to Lulu for not getting butthurt, and shout out to Alejandra Ledezma for her awesome make up skills.

Reyna Serrano: Shout out to Janelle Pedroza for carrying me to bed and Veronica Marquez for always looking after me. Shout out to Lulu for always being able to make me laugh even when I don’t want to or at inappropriate times. Lastly, shout out to Maria Gamboa for never sharing her toys when we were little.

Scottie Ziegner: Shout out to cooper holzman for being a wet tennis player and making nice ham sandwiches. Shout out to the boys’ tennis team for being CRC champs. Shout out to Noah Noteboom and Carlos Ybarra for being the funniest kids out there. And Quinn Tyler for being the kid he is. And shout out to Alyssa Shoaf, Lauren Winans, Kelsey Wells, and Bella Lee for always judging what I ate during lunch. Jerks.

Saluting 1975 Hood River Valley High School Graduates!

Hood River Republicans are proud of our Hood River Valley graduates Mark Johnson and Chuck Thomsen, both Republican legislators in Oregon. Their education at Hood River Valley High School helped them become successful business people and leaders in governmental affairs from the local to the state level.

Following in the footsteps of the first Republican president, Abraham Lincoln, they tackle the hard issues of providing services to Oregon residents while keeping the state budget balanced. We invite all current HRV students to study the issues and the candidates to decide which people will be the best at leading our country in both the good and not-so-good times. Your future will be affected by those who are serving in the Oregon legislature this year through 2016.

Contact State Representative Mark at Rep.MarkJohnson@state.or.us; or phone number 503-986-1452.
Contact State Senator Chuck at Sen.ChuckThomsen@state.or.us; or phone number 503-986-1726.

The Hood River Democrats invite you to take this short survey.
(Check as many answers as you want.)

What issues are most important to you?

- ☐ Immigration reform for undocumented Dreamers and their families
- ☐ A living wage and healthcare for all workers
- ☐ More money for K-12 education and community colleges
- ☐ Tax fairness (eliminate tax breaks for big corporations)
- ☐ Equity and fairness for LGBT people
- ☐ More classroom electives and AP classes
- ☐ More grants for college students, loan forgiveness for students in debt
- ☐ Stronger programs for English learners
- ☐ Support for renewable energy to reduce climate change
- ☐ All of the above

If you answered YES to one or more of the above issues, you might already be a Democrat.
